

ELITE STONE: THE BEAUTY OF THE ITALIAN LUXURY MARBLE IN LONDON

Elite Stone is luxury "Made in Italy" marble company and a reference point for high-end interior design projects. It provides customers with deep knowledge of the materials, experience, craftsmanship and passion for absolute perfection.

Elite Stone changes the way to use natural stone not only for home design but also for residential, hospitality and luxury retail projects. It is not only a matter of master craftsmanship in the processing of marble, but also of meticulous studies of natural stones and constant search of the rarest and most exclusive materials all around the world.

Marble, onyx or precious stone is specially selected by Tetyana Kovalenko, CEO of Elite Stone, to satisfy sophisticated tastes of high end customers.

Elite Stone technical team of project managers, architects and designers creates bespoke masterpieces made of natural stone. Each element, from the dimensions to the smallest details of the finishing, is absolutely customizable: the result is an iconic and unique piece.

The latest innovation introduced by Elite Stone is E-Light System, a sophisticated high-tech patent, the result of ten years of research and experimentation in the field of backlit stone. Elite Stone invents a new identity of marble where lightness and transparency become unprecedented characteristics.
